Publication of submissions

In meeting the Australian Government's commitment to enhancing the accessibility of published material, the Attorney-General's Department will only publish submissions to this website that have been submitted electronically. The following formats are preferred:

- Microsoft Word
- Rich Text Format (RTF)
- txt format.

Please limit individual file size to less than 5MB. The department may create PDF documents from the above formats.

- Hardcopy submissions received by mail or fax will still be considered, however they will not be published on the website.

Confidentiality and anonymity

To promote transparency in the consultation process, we may publish submissions online as appropriate. If you would like your submission published, please indicate this when submitting it. We will not publish your submission without your consent or if we consider (for any reason) that it should not be made public. We may redact parts of published submissions, as appropriate. You can also ask for your submission to be published anonymously.

Where multiple submissions are received that are identical or very similar, a single submission may be published as representative of the campaign, along with an indication of the number of submissions raising the same set of issues that were made as part of the same campaign (noting this will be at the government's discretion). Submissions that were made as part of a campaign but that raise different issues relevant to the consultation may be considered for separate publication.

Refer to our privacy policy for more information on the use of your information.
